PROFILE

Rochelle Cameron

Founder and CEO, Prescient Consulting Services

Rochelle Cameron is an accomplished attorney-at-law with an impressive 25-year tenure at the Jamaican Bar who has garnered extensive experience in both the public and private sectors. Rochelle began her legal journey as a Prosecutor in the Jamaican Courts. Subsequently, she transitioned to the corporate arena, serving as a Vice President of Legal and Regulatory and Company Secretary for one of the Caribbean's major Telcos. Notably, Rochelle's expertise extends beyond the legal realm. She has held leadership roles in Human Resources and Public Relations, showcasing her versatility and multidimensional capabilities. In times of crisis and organizational transformation, Rochelle has consistently demonstrated calm, collaborative, and decisive leadership. Her ability to navigate challenging situations has earned her a reputation as an expert business strategist.

Recognizing the importance of people development, Rochelle is deeply committed to fostering an enabling environment where everyone can tap into their brilliance. As the founder and CEO of Prescient Consulting Services Limited, she leads a team of professionals in the development and execution of business, legal, people, and communications strategies. Rochelle has also co-founded Ready to Emerge Limited, an organization dedicated to personal and professional development. Through this initiative, she continues to empower individuals to unlock their full potential.

Rochelle's dynamic personality shines on the stage as a keynote speaker at local and international events. With her unique "Adrenaline Roch" style, she blends passion, high-energy, and humour to deliver engaging presentations on serious topics. Her ability to captivate audiences makes her an exceptional communicator.
